

I feel changeing the no-call list is wrong. I get these anoying calls and they jamb up my answering machine.They are on a eletric timer of sorts and just call and if no one is home the machine picks them up and if your number is not ready it hangs up and my machine just beeeeeeeeps and it has burned out 2 of them. Please keep it the way it was meant to be.

Thanks

Judith Beecher